

THE ALUMNAE NEWS

WOMAN'S COLLEGE OF THE
UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA
WOMAN'S COLLEGE
APR 15 1943
THE ALUMNAE NEWS

Apr. 1943

APRIL 1943

THE ALUMNAE NEWS

Published Four Times a Year: July, November, February and April, by the Alumnae and Former Students Association, Incorporated, of the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Greensboro

MEMBER OF AMERICAN ALUMNI COUNCIL

CLARA BOOTH BYRD, Editor

OFFICERS AND BOARD MEMBERS

President: LULA MARTIN McIVER DICKINSON (MRS. JOHN)
Vice President: JULIA ROSS LAMBERT (MRS W. L.)
Honorary President: LAURA COIT
Executive Secretary: CLARA B BYRD

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Moffite Sinclair Henderson (Mrs. J. L.), Caroline Goforth Hogue (Mrs. Richard), Carrie Tabor Stevens (Mrs. C. E.), Nettie Parker Wirth (Mrs. Albert), Ethel Wells Moore (Mrs. Floyd), Emily Austin, Anne Albright, Janet Weil Bluthenthal (Mrs. Herbert), Gertrude Carraway, Sadie McBrayer McCain (Mrs. P. P.)

Vol. XXXI

APRIL, 1943

No. 4

CONTENTS

	PAGE
UP AND DOWN THE AVENUE	1
THE CLASSES HAVE THIS CORNER	2
SOMETHING OF MY LIFE AND WORK AT THE METROPOLITAN MUSEUM OF ART Margaret Gash	3
THE FRONT COVER	3
ALUMNAE WHO ARE NEW MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY THIS YEAR	4
GLADYS AVERY TILLET	5
TWO POEMS BY JULIA McGRANE	5
THE FAMILY TREE	6
WHAT WAVES AND WAACS ARE SAYING AND DOING	6
LETTERS	8
CONSOLIDATED UNIVERSITY BOARD OF TRUSTEES	9
GIFT TO ALUMNAE HOUSE	9
NEWS FROM THE ALUMNAE	10
MARRIAGES	15
NECROLOGY	16

Patronize Our Advertisers

	Page
Montaldo's	13
Vicks	14
Woolworth's	14
Montgomery Ward	15
Walton's Shoe Shop	15
Franklin Studios—Photography	15
Sancton & Dickerson— Jewelers and Optometrists	16
Sears Roebuck & Co.	16
Yellow Taxi Co.	16
Charles Stores	16
Greensboro Nchi Bottling Co.— Royal Crown Cola	17
The Grill—Eats	17
Dick's Laundry Co.	17
Phil R. Carlton, Inc.— Real Estate, Insurance, etc.	17
Manuel's Restaurant	17
Silver's—5c-10c-$1.00	17
Columbia Laundry	17
Union Bus Station	17
Blue Bird Taxi	17
Sills—Shoes	17
Ellis Stone & Co.—Ladies' Wear	17
E. A. Woodell—Printing	17
The Mecca—Restaurant	17
Greensboro Bowling Center	17
Belk's Department Store	Back Cover
Kearns Paint Co.	Back Cover
Jos. J. Stone & Co.—Printing	Back Cover
Mock, Judson, Voehringer— Hosiery	Back Cover

UP and DOWN the Avenue ❖

CONCERNING CLASS REUNIONS

About the middle of March, the Alumnae Office received a letter from the Treasury Department in Washington, enclosing a news release — sent, we take it, to alumni offices throughout the country — from Secretary Morgenthau, urging the alumni of American schools, colleges, and universities to abandon class reunions for the duration and devote travel and other reunion costs to the purchase of War Bonds. Such a plan "both relieves strain on our transportation facilities and assists our war financing," the Secretary said.

Mrs. Dickinson, president of the Alumnae Association, and Dean Jackson here at College, both thought that we should gladly and willingly cooperate with this request of the Government; in fact, they felt that we could do otherwise.

Accordingly, letters were sent from Mrs. Dickinson and the Alumnae Secretary to the presidents of the Reunion Classes this year — 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910; 1918; 1926, 1927, 1928, 1929; 1933; 1942 — giving them the situation as it had developed. Their replies indicate hearty concurrence with Secretary Morgenthau's request.

Unless new conditions appear to the contrary, we shall, however, have Alumnae Day, Saturday, June 5, even though in abbreviated form. As soon as plans have been definitely worked out, the alumnae at large will be informed about them. The presidents of the Reunion Classes may also wish to write to their classmates. Many of you may find it possible in various ways to be here for informal gatherings and renewals of friendships and associations.

The College, we are happy to say, has not yet been seriously affected by the war. Although we are wholeheartedly committed to doing our utmost to help win the war speedily, we are also committed to maintaining as nearly intact as possible our educational institutions and organizations. They are basic. In building a durable peace, they are foundational. The work of the Alumnae Association as an instrument of creative power, must be kept at high level. We have hard work ahead to do.

Baccalaureate Day and Commencement Day, June 6 and 7 respectively, will follow the usual pattern. Dr. Peter Marshall, minister of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Washington, will preach the sermon, Governor Broughton, President Graham, Dean Jackson, and a representative of the Graduating Class will speak on Graduation Day.

THE ALUMNAE CHAPEL PROGRAM

The Alumnae Committee on Undergraduate Relations adopted for this year a tentative plan of work, including a program at the regular chapel hour in Aycock, on Tuesday morning, April 20. Since all hearts and minds are so largely occupied by the war, the committee decided to center this program around the dedication of a Service Flag in honor of our alumnae who are, or who will be, members of the Armed Forces, or who will serve overseas with the Red Cross or other war-related agencies. With the exception of the trumpeters, all those who will take part are alumnae.

THE PROGRAM

Organ Processional — Modern Patriotic Airs, Arr. by Hermene Warlick Eichhorn — Mrs. Eichhorn
 Introductions — Margaret Moser, Chairman of the Committee
 'Cello Solo — Bach's Arioso — Amy Newcombe Nanzetta, Katherine Hine Shore at the piano

Talk — Our Service — Lula Martin Dickinson, President of the Alumnae Association

Talk — Women in the Armed Service — Ensign Shirley Melchor, of the WAVES

The Dedication Ritual — Written by Marjorie Craig, read by Elizabeth Taylor White

Responses made by trumpeters — Cherry Folger '41 and soldiers

The National Anthem

The Service Flag is a thing of beauty — it will hang permanently in Alumnae House. Measuring 5 3/8" x 9", it was especially designed for the Alumnae Association, and is made of flag wool. The white field is framed by a wide red border, and near the top one great blue star symbolizes the service of many alumnae who will be part of the Armed Forces.

The Undergraduate Relations Committee is genuinely indebted to three members of the Faculty for invaluable assistance: Mr. Howard Thibault, acting head of the Art Department, for designing the flag; Miss Kathryn England, of the Dramatics Department, for staging the program; Mr. George Henry, of the Music Department, for writing the responses, and coaching the trumpeters.

TWO ADDITIONAL WOMEN OF THE FACULTY NOW WITH THE ARMED FORCES

The Alumnae News proudly adds to the roster published in the February number of the magazine the names of two additional women of the Faculty who are now with the fighting forces of our country — Dorothy Lee Clement, assistant professor in the Department of Music, and Mary Betty Lee, secretary at Curry School.

Dorothy, alumna, joined the staff of the American Red Cross as overseas hospital visitor. By the time this number of the magazine appears, she will likely have reached her destination, Somewhere Over There. The unit to which she has been assigned is a new service of the Red Cross, designed to maintain morale. It will include reading and writing letters for those who are ill, planning entertainment and amusement for the convalescents, and doing the hundred and one friendly and helpful things which are so important to the sick and lonely soldier, far from home. Dorothy's ability as a musician will be of inestimable value in this work.

Mary Betty joined the WAVES, and went from her work in Curry School, and many friends there, to Oglethorpe, Ga., for basic training. She was later transferred to another training center to acquire new skills, and when she is ready, will be assigned to duty in place of a man, or men, released for actual combat.

To them both, bon voyage!

COTTEN

GRAY

BAILEY

The Classes Have This Corner

THE SENIOR CLASS. Jane Thompson, president, speaking:

The Class of 1943 is very much pleased to have had the privilege of adding $1500 in War Bonds to the Chapel Fund. This was the profit made on the Junior Shoppe. We expect to increase the amount before June and graduation comes. Perhaps we really are distinguished—almost a "first"—in the number of marriages which have already taken place among the Seniors, and the number of engagements announced. There has been no rationing of engagement and wedding rings so far among the '43s! Numerous Seniors have married men in the Armed Forces, the majority of whom are expecting overseas service. But with very few exceptions, the brides are remaining in College to complete their work.

The Senior Formal took place as usual, except as to cost—that was very much not as usual. Decorations, for instance, were strictly home-grown, and cost next to nothing. The orchestra was lively, but the outgoing check did not come within the higher brackets.

We really feel that our big job now is to graduate. After that, it will be for most of us service of some kind. The class is sponsoring a meeting, with speakers who will give us tips on how to make the application that will land the job we want; how to dress properly for an interview with a prospective employer. We have also sponsored the appearance on the campus of a WAAC recruiting officer.

The Seniors—412 in number—are keeping on an even keel, I think, as a class, and this is no small achievement at this time, when our hearts are so deeply stirred by what is happening in the world.

THE JUNIOR CLASS. Nancy Kirby, president, speaking:

The Junior Shoppe is doing well this year, under the management of Kathryn Levis and Ida Harper, although there is not the usual variety of things to sell. From the profit already made, a $1,000 War Bond has been purchased, and a second Bond of the same denomination will be purchased soon. The Junior Shoppe is always a grand venture as well as a grand adventure; members of the class do all the work, and there is much work.

The class has had another project this year—Good Grooming, equally interesting, and equally profitable in a different way, as the Shoppe. Early in the year, we "decorated" the Freshman halls with posters illustrating this theme, and we also put on a skit in each of the Freshman halls. Later in the year, the class sponsored a program in chapel on the subject. Campus etiquette and manners, the right clothes for the occasion, and other things pertinent to good grooming were emphasized and illustrated. A fashion show is also scheduled. Blanche Thies is chairman of the Good Grooming Committee.

Another thing about which our class is enthusiastic is this—beautifying the hill above the lake. Shrubbery and bulbs have been brought by students from the gardens of their own homes, and we are looking forward to a time when a beautifully landscaped hillside will be seen in place of the present stubbled ground. Professor Earl Hall, of the Botany Department is advising the class.

Other events—routine certainly, but thrilling to us—have been the purchase of class rings, sponsoring one of the University Sermons, helping the Freshmen, through Toni Lupton, to get their wings during the first semester, as well as entertaining the Freshmen with a fashion parade and carnival during Freshman Week.

There are 419 Juniors.

And now we shall soon be Seniors.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS. Ann Long, president, speaking:

The Sophomores—there are 419 of us—undertook as the class project this year to sponsor the sale of War Stamps. We have furnished the salesmen, have made posters, and put up booths in Aycock, in the Tavern, at the Junior Shoppe, at the Hut, at the Victory neighborhood theater. All this has meant a great deal of work, but stamps have been sold.

We hope the alumnae won't mind if the Sophomores did break one tradition. We purchased navy blue jackets this year instead of white—navy blue, piped in white, "Eton Britishers," with a white "WCUNC '45." And, oh! they do look so patriotic! They cost a little less too.

The Sophomore Formal on February 13 took due note of Saint Valentine. The dance cost little in comparison with some of the dances of previous years, so we are told, but we wonder how any other Sophomore Class could have had a better time than we did. Of course we put the money saved into War Bonds.

The traditional Sophomore Christmas Pageant was very beautifully worked out this year, so everyone told us. It centered of course around the Christmas story. The setting was in a cathedral. The College Choir and the Play-Likers assisted.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS. Barbara Brasington, president, speaking:

The Freshman Class, numbering 678, has been organized only a few weeks, but we hope we are making a good impression on the campus anyway. The Class of 1942 bequeathed to us their interest in keeping the campus clean, and this we have faithfully tried to do. We helped Mr. Sink rake the leaves, and believe me, there were millions and millions of them! Beware too, if you start to cut a corner on our campus—the Froshies will get you! The '42s also handed down to us their class colors—green and white. We chose this for our motto: "Strength Through Unity." The four-leaf clover is our flower. Freshmen live in Gray, Cotten, Coit, Bailey, and Jamison Halls—all on the west side.

We are going to have our first formal dance on May 4. Since Greensbor has a camp now, we think there will be enough boys.

We Freshmen are mighty proud that eight girls in our class made A's the first semester. We feel that we are a real part of the College—that this is our College, and we love it, and want to uphold its best ideals.

The Front Cover

Yes, you have heard of her before—the charming woman in uniform on the front cover. She is one of our own. Capt. Westray Battle Boyce, Com. '19, holding two important titles with the military. Director of the WAACS for the Fourth Service Command, with headquarters in Atlanta, and head of the WAAC Branch at headquarters of this Service Command. She came to Woman's College from Rocky Mount, where Battles have lived for generations. It may not be done in military manner, Capt. Boyce, but after the fashion of friends and family, proudly and from the bottom of our hearts, we salute you, Capt. Boyce!

The WAAC found her in Washington, where she was in charge of insurance of all defense building for the Federal Works Administration. Previous to that time she had worked in Raleigh with the home office of a large North Carolina insurance company. Somewhere along the line she married, and not the least of her achievements is a 16-year old daughter, Westray, Jr.

Capt. Boyce has under her direction all WAACS in the seven southeastern states, the largest number in any service command. Her work is administrative, relating to personnel, enrollment, discharge, assignment, transfers, promotions, discipline, and policy. The task is all the more weighty because many new interpretations of Army regulations have to be made for the WAACS, policies established, and precedents set. They say she has the requirements to fill the job, and that she is "the best advertisement that the Woman's Army Auxiliary Corps could have." Diminutive and feminine, she does a big and important job in a heretofore uncharted field with efficiency, tact, and good humor.

Something of My Life and Work at the Metropolitan Museum of Art

By Margaret Gash 1895
Supervisor of the Catalogue Department

The Alumnae News may regret the request that I write fully about my life and my work at the Metropolitan Museum, because the first has been uneventful and the second has developed so slowly that it must be interesting chiefly to me.

My present occupation came about because the teaching profession, for some reason unknown to me, seemed perfectly able to dispense with my services. The library world to which I next turned was kinder. After a few years in public library work, I was offered a small position in the office of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, where it was thought that my library training could be made useful. I welcomed the opportunity—that was thirty-seven years ago; I am still here.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art has had a life history not unlike that of our College, particularly in its earlier years.

Each institution owes its existence to the vision of a group of far-sighted men who began with nothing but their faith and a hard won charter. Each has already developed to proportions not dreamed of by the founders to whom they owe their inception.

The Museum has been in existence about seventy-two years. It was opened in a rented building, with volunteer helpers to care for a small collection of paintings, its only source of revenue being a small admission fee.

In the early years its growth was slow, but it attracted the attention of collectors and philanthropists, so that within a few years its possessions had outgrown temporary quarters, and buildings had been erected by the city to house the collections.

In the meantime the city had granted an appropriation for running expenses in return for remission of fees. But the city does not in any way add to the collections. These are all gifts, either direct, like the Morgan gift and the Altman bequest, or indirect, by the establishment of funds from which purchases might be made or excavations carried on.

MARGARET GASH

Therefore every object must be credited to some donor. When a label says "Rogers Fund," the Museum acknowledges its debt to the New Jersey locomotive builder who did more to add to the "rare and desirable objects of art and books," than any other man to date, although no one connected with the Museum had ever seen or heard of him, until his will was read.

On the other hand, the "Kennedy Fund" was established by a vice president of the Museum, who had worked on the Board for years, and knowing the Museum's needs and capacities, considered it worthy to share in his bequest of millions of dollars to colleges, hospitals, churches, libraries and charitable institutions, particularly to those in the "city in which he had been prospered."

It was in regard to the records of the relations of the Museum to its benefactors, large and small, that I joined the Museum staff in 1906 and it is the second thirty-five years of Museum history with which I have intimate knowledge.

My first work was to put in shape and index all the accumulated manuscript material: correspondence, reports, minute books, wills, contracts—everything on paper which concerned the previous history, as well as to prepare lists of gifts and bequests, with reports thereon, to be acted upon by various committees.

New accessions had become so numerous that an immense amount of work was necessary to keep the records even partially straight. This became my job and it is still keeping me busy.

Working under the secretary of the Museum, who had been a trained librarian, I helped to devise a system of cataloguing objects which we hoped would have the same authority and be of the same use to the Museum as a catalogue of books is to a library. Our catalogue is made with the cooperation of the curatorial staff, who are responsible for all attributions, all technical information and all dates; we add necessary utilitarian facts to make the records complete and accessible—accession numbers, negative numbers, names of donors or funds, classification, publications and notes.

One feature of our catalogue is unique (or was unique at the time we started). The first entry for every object which tells at least what the object is, to what class or period it belongs, and how the Museum acquired it, is either made upon or accompanied by a photograph. This may be followed by a half dozen added cards with publications, notes about restoration, additional negative numbers, or it may be all that is known about that particular object.

A catalogue of objects differs from a catalogue of books, especially in two ways. There is no one standard of comparison, and each painting, or rug, or sculpture is an individual thing instead of one of an edition, some one of which has already been correctly entered in the Library of Congress or elsewhere. Moreover, different classes of material require different kinds of entries—so that uniformity is impossible. Nor is it ever finished. A new book may cause any number of changes in attributions; restoration is always going on, X-ray photographs are continually being made.

While the catalogue was started to take care of new accessions, it now records at least eighty per cent of the contents of the Museum—exclusive of prints, books, lantern slides, and the like, and contains something like one hundred and fifty thousand cards.

The objects recorded vary in size from a scarab to a Virginia ball room, in period from 5000 B.C. to 1940, and in value from nothing to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Our catalogue was begun to fill a practical need and it has proved to be an exceeding useful tool. It was not expected to take the place of special catalogues issued by our experts, but it is expected to agree with everything published by the Museum in all facts and attributions.

When the experiment was begun, I gave it half my time—then all my time; then one assistant was added and another until I had usually five or six.

Unfortunately for me, the experience with the catalogue has been valuable training, and the Museum has now several assistant or associate curators who began their Museum careers with me. Several have been lost to other Museums, and a few have been diverted by private collectors. The result of having to train in new people is that there are never enough of us to keep up with current work, much less to catch up with the past.

This has been an interesting experiment—and for the Museum a useful record. Moreover, it has given me a busy and happy life.

Alumnae Who Are New Members of the Faculty This Year

Having their first experience this year on "the other side of the question," as members of the faculty of their Alma Mater, instead of students, are several alumnae.

Joyce Cooper '28, M.A. University of North Carolina, returns as instructor in Education. Joyce has been teaching in the Raleigh schools. She is also serving as president of the North Carolina Association of Childhood Education.

Roberta Cowles '40 is an assistant in the reference department of the college library. She was a junior assistant in the library at Chapel Hill, while working for her A.B. degree in Library Science. She received this degree last August.

Elizabeth Cummings '38, instructor in the Department of Secretarial Administration. Elizabeth taught in the Shelby High School after her graduation. Last year she was a graduate student at Woman's College, working toward an M.A. degree in Secretarial Science.

Maxine Dark '42 is an assistant in the Biology Department.

Maxine Garner '39 is Director of Religious Activities. Maxine taught English in the Roanoke Rapids High School, and at one time was a member of the editorial staff of the Biblical Recorder.

Evelyn Hurwitz '42 is an assistant in the Department of Physical Education. She also works with Play-Likers.

Clara Knox '37 is assistant director of dining halls. She has taught home economics in the public schools of North Carolina, and was dietitian last year at Erskine College.

Sue Marchison '42 is an assistant in the Department of Romance Languages.

Anne Pearce '42 is an assistant in the Department of Physical Education.

Marjorie Pye '39 assists in the Department of Psychology.

Edna Earle Richardson '40 is an assistant in the Biology Department. Edna taught for two years in the Morven High School.

Adelle Sherard '40 is assistant in the college cafeteria.

Dorothy Sherwin '37 is an assistant in the Chemistry Department, and student counselor in Woman's Hall. Dorothy previously taught in the Gastonia High School.

Marion Watson '32 is an assistant in the Department of Education. She has taught in the public schools of North Carolina.

Margaret Wyatt '40 is an instructor in the Department of Chemistry. Margaret won the Weill Fellowship upon graduation, and spent the two years following at Smith College as a graduate assistant, at the same time working for an M.A. degree in Chemistry, which she received last June.

SECRETARIAL STAFF

Betty (Hannon) Gay, Com. '39, Auditor's Office.

Kate (Harrison) Wharton '33, office of Class Chairmen.

Mary (Heffner) Wimbish '38, Physical Education Department.

Gray High, Com. '42, Home Economics Department.

Ida (Hunt) Kelly, Com. '38, Music Department.

Rachel (Lipscomb) Graves '34, Registrar's Office.

Ruth Shaffer '30, Treasurer's Office.

Evon Welch, Com. '42, Alumnae Office.

GLADYS AVERY TILLET

Assistant Chairman of the Democratic National Committee

Gladys Avery (Mrs. Charles W. Tillett) '15 is perhaps best remembered as a student because of the fact that she was elected first president of the Student Government Association of this College. The change from faculty government to student government was the beginning of a new order indeed, and as pilot in these untried waters, Gladys gave promise that has been amply fulfilled.

As Assistant Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, Gladys now becomes ex officio new head of the Women's Division. She is no stranger to women all over the country. She is of course especially well known to Democratic women, who have worked with her during the last two presidential campaigns. They know her as Gladys Tillett, director of the Women's Division Speakers' Bureau at National Headquarters, in the 1936 and 1940 campaigns, with a kind of genius for getting the right speaker to the right place at the right time. Those who have worked with her more closely, at headquarters, will also describe her as a dependable, soft-spoken executive, with a quiet sense of humor, who never loses her head, no matter what happens — and plenty can happen in the Speakers' Bureau during a national campaign.

Mrs. Tillett most earnestly believes that women should have an equal share with men in the privileges and responsibilities of citizens in a democracy, and the importance of their qualifying themselves to take on these privileges and responsibilities is a kind of religion with her. In fact, that's how she got into politics.

After her graduation from this college, and later from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, followed by some post-graduate work at Columbia, she looked about for a field in which she could work for these convictions. Her first interest was the League of Women Voters, and in time she became North Carolina President of that organization. Eventually, however, she reached the conclusion that the best way for women to get things done was to get right into one of the political parties and work for the things they believed in.

So Gladys Avery Tillett, daughter of the late Justice Avery of the North Carolina Supreme Court, and wife of one of the state's leading attorneys, went to work right down in a precinct in her home city, Charlotte.

She became, successively — and after plenty of hard, faithful work — Vice Chairman of her home Precinct Committee, Vice Chairman of the Mecklenburg County Committee, Vice Chairman of the Tenth North Carolina Congressional District organization, and finally, Vice Chairman of the North Carolina Democratic Executive Committee. She has been a member of that committee for ten years.

All through this period Mrs. Tillett worked — those who know her would say, "gently, but persistently" — for precinct representation for women. Finally, as State Vice Chairman, she presented to the State Executive Committee a motion granting them this representation. It passed.

Mrs. Tillett has been a delegate-at-large to three Democratic National Conventions — 1932, 1936, and 1940.

In addition to her work for the party, Mrs. Tillett has found time for other forms of public service. She is, for instance, a member of the North Carolina Defense Commission and a member of the National Board of the Y.W.C.A.

Mrs. Tillett, however, is not the only member of the Tillett family who is widely known in North Carolina. Mr. Tillett is former President of the North Carolina Bar Association, a present member of the North Carolina Board of Law Examiners, a former member of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina, a member of the American Bar Association, and a consultant in connection with certain work of the American Law Institute.

The Tilletts have three children — two daughters and a son. The oldest daughter, Gladys, is also a graduate of this College, in the Class of 1941.

Two Poems by Julia McGrane

(Julia Blauvelt '26)

HEART AFFORDS A SMILE

Though mind is useful to enumerate,
The heart decides.
Thought sifts through her peculiar mesh,
Her choice abides.

Men framing words the senses to enchant
Importance store
Instant with truth in "kernel," "hub,"
And "nucleus," and "core."

Supreme and central, heart affords a smile,
Allows mind still
His signature on documents
Penned by her will.

—Poetry (February 1943)

LETTER

(To one vainly in love)

When you are old
Then you will own your body,
But not until.
Now must the heart beat
Wait upon a footfall.
Do what you will.

When you are old
Time will no longer matter.
Another year
Will step into an afternoon
And out again
And none shall hear.

When you are old
Essence will be dimension,
All youth be one.
Sole name belonging
To all faces
It rests upon.

Yet this I write to you
Who are not old or withered
To faintly bless.
In time, in space,
Marooned in its specificity,
Your loneliness.

—Voices (Winter 1943)

THE FAMILY TREE

Our College Granddaughters

There are 180 enrolled this year

SENIORS — 31

Jane Wyche Adams*
 Mary Lamb Allison
 Virginia Benton
 Mary Margaret Burney
 Henrietta Clodfelter
 Agnes Cooley
 Marguerite Marie Cox
 Grace Dobbins
 Eleanor Anne Edwards
 Jane Stuart Golden
 Cora Margaret Hamrick
 Sara Mundy Hamrick
 Catherine Letitia Justice
 Martha Barnes Kirkland
 Jeanne Harris Love
 Ruby Frances Madry
 Anna Medford
 Genevieve Mary Oswald
 Louise Poore
 Belle Hicks Purvis
 Margaret H. Sherrill
 Anne Bryan Spivey
 Sara Holt Therrell
 Anna Tomlinson
 Mary Tuttle
 Ann Elizabeth Walker
 Mary Ellen West
 Carolyn Miller White
 Ruth Matthews White
 Lillian Bird Zachary
 Carolyn Burdette Wilson

* President YWCA 1942-43

Alice (Poole) Adams '17
 Byrd (Lambe) Allison, class of '14
 Blanche (Howie) Benton '18
 Mary Ola (Doub) Burney, class of '21
 Clara (Redwine) Clodfelter, class of '21
 Pearl (Holloway) Cooley '11
 Bertie Crews (Freeman) Cox '08 (deceased)
 Beulah (Logan) Dobbins '18
 Emory (Doughton) Edwards, Com. '15
 Hilda (Fagge) Golden, class of '20
 Marietta (Moore) Hamrick, class of '09
 Ettie (Abernathy) Hamrick, class of '17
 Lillian (Jones) Justice, Com. '20
 Bessie (Barnes) Kirkland, class of '19
 Ruby (Melvin) Love, class of '16
 Maggie (Miller) Madry, Com. '18
 Elizabeth (McCracken) Medford, class of '06
 Jeanette (Glenn) Oswald, Com. '15
 Edith (Cockerham) Poore, class of '21
 Belle (Hicks) Purvis '10
 Anita (Miller) Sherrill, class of '07
 Gay (Holman) Spivey '15
 Carrie Meade (Fix) Therrell, class of '21
 May (Loveless) Tomlinson '07
 Amy (Joseph) Tuttle '12
 Annie (Spainhour) Walker '16
 Gladys (Hodges) West, class of '21
 Annie Louise (Smith) White, class of '13
 Ada (Bell) White, class of '19
 Willie (Thomas) Zachary, class of '21
 Madeline D. (Ould) Wilson, Com. '16

JUNIORS — 45

Doris Andrew
 Ora Grace Beasley
 Mary Anne Bristol
 Jean Brown
 Dorothea Rosalie Bultman*
 Ann Butler
 Jean Cantrell
 Anne W. Carter
 Mary Agnes Cochrane
 Anna Laura Cole
 Nancy Katherine Davis
 Mary Lib Doggett
 Helen Gainey
 Juliana Hanks
 Eva Viola Higdon
 Helen Hilderman
 Nancy Lee Jackson
 DeLon Cooper Kearney
 Betsy King
 Mildred Elizabeth King
 Nancy Kirby
 Mary Moline Kirkman†
 Carmele Cecil Lambeth
 Mrs. Sara (Sheppard) Lashman
 Daphne Lewis
 Tony Lupton
 Anne McBride
 Caroline McBride
 Hal March‡
 May Morrison March

Lucie (Wiggins) Andrew, Com. '14
 Fannie (Gray) Beasley, class of '13
 Mabel (Laugenour) Bristol, class of '16
 Carrie (Exum) Brown, class of '13
 Dorothy (Phelps) Bultman '18
 Annie Rebecca (Jones) Butler, class of '14
 Kate (Thomas) Cantrell, Com. '17
 Anne (Fulton) Carter '21
 Agnes Mae (Dellinger) Cochrane, class of '21
 Annie Laurie (Martin) Cole '10
 Carrie (Perkins) Davis, class of '14
 Ann (Blevins) Doggett, Com. '19
 Mazie (Kirkpatrick) Gainey '15
 Julia Grace (Rudisell) Hanks, Com. '06
 Ethel (Higdon) Higdon, class of '15
 Myrtle (Long) Hilderman, class of '05
 Mary Sue (Irvin) Jackson, Com. '19
 DeLon (Cooper) Kearney, class of '18
 Lizzie (Dalton) King '18
 Mildred (Thorp) King '19
 Nancy (Porter) Kirby '18
 Kate (Hunt) Kirkman '18
 Kathleen (Kennedy) Russell, Com. '20
 Ouida (Watson) Sheppard '17
 Daphne (Waters) Lewis, class of '21
 Sudie R. (Murphrey) Lupton, class of '24
 Eva (Marsh) McBride, Com. '18
 Willie (White) McBride '08
 Hal (Morrison) March '09
 Hal (Morrison) March '09

What WAVES and WAACS are Saying and Doing

Lt. Alice Gilster (formerly Alice Elizabeth Ashley '37) completed basic training with the WAACS, and was assigned to the United States Army Induction Station, Bangor, Me., as a recruiting officer. She was married on last Christmas day to Lt. Arthur Henry Gilster, Air Pilot USNR, of Chicago.

Lt. Margaret A. Bacchus '32, commissioned at Des Moines, in on duty at the 5th WAAC Training Center, Camp Polk, La.

Lt. Mildred Inez Caroon '40 completed training at Des Moines, Ia., and was then sent to the new WAAC Training Center, Daytona Beach, Fla. After serving there as supply officer and executive officer, she was made company commander.

Ensign Betty C. Clutts, of the WAVES, was assigned to duty at Charleston, S. C., after her training at Smith College. Her work is a military secret.

Inez Pauline Spainhour (now Mrs. R. J. Corbitt Jr.) '30 was trained at the Smith College Center, acquired the rank of SK 3 c, and was assigned to office work as storekeeper at the Philadelphia Navy Yard.

Lt. Geraldine Cox '39, of the WAACS, is now on duty in the Motor Transport Division, WAACS Training Center, Daytona Beach, Fla. The latter part of January she had a furlough for a visit to her family in Washington, N. C.

Ensign Rosemary Cross '41 was assigned to duty as aide to Admiral Marquardt, Brooklyn Navy Yard. She is also connected with communications, and is happy to have been able to release an officer, now gone to sea.

Ensign Louise Dorsett (formerly Louise E. Nash '34) is on duty in the Bureau of Ships, Navy Department, Washington, D. C. Her work is administrative. Ensign Dorsett received her training at the Mount Holyoke Unit of the WAVES. She was married early in January to Lt. L. H. Dorsett, USA, now overseas.

Lt. Jean Marie Dulin, class of 1942, after training with the WAACS in

Des Moines, was sent to Wilmington, N. C., where she is serving as company personnel officer for the 61st WAAC Filter Company.

Ensign Marion W. Fisher '39 is serving as an X-ray technician with the United States Navy Dispensary, Miami, Fla. She received basic training with the WAVES at Smith College.

Sgt. Margaret C. Gray, class of 1943, of the WAACS, was made liaison aide to the commanding general of the Fourth Operations Company, Norfolk, Va., in connection with telephone communications.

Ensign Frances H. Hall '40, of the WAVES, has been assigned to the Division of Communications, 19 E Battery, Charleston, S. C.

Sgt. Dorothy S. Hammock, Com. '32, of the WAACS, is rated a "Specialist" with the 23rd Company, AWS, Charleston, S. C.

Cpl. Eleanor Anne Hammond, class of '36, is serving as a library aide at the post library, Fort Sheridan, Ill. She is rated as corporal (technician 5th grade).

Margaret L. Huff '40, of the WAACS, is serving as laboratory technician at the WAAC Army Administration School, Nacogdoches, Texas.

Ensign Margaret Idol '39, of the WAVES, was assigned to confidential duty in the Port Director's Office, Charleston, S. C.

Ensign Shirley Melchor '37, of the WAVES, is doing confidential work with the United States Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, Md.

Ensign E. Kathryn Miller '35, of the WAVES, after being trained with the Smith College Unit, was made a staff officer at the WAVES Training Center, Bloomington, Ind.

Ensign Barbara H. Moore '39, of the WAVES, was assigned to duty with the Squantum Naval Air Base, Squantum, Mass.

Lt. Kathryn J. Royster '35, after completing the training with the WAACS at Des Moines, was sent to the WAAC Training Center at Daytona Beach, Fla., where she is director of physical education.

Lt. Mary E. Stanton '39 received her commission at Ft. Des Moines, and was stationed in Wilmington, N. C., where she is doing aircraft warning service with the Wilmington Information Center.

Cpl. Virginia M. St. Peter (technician 5th grade), class of 1943, was

GROUP OF GRANDDAUGHTERS

Seniors and Juniors on steps of Alumnae House

Reading left to right: Marguerite M. Cox, Carolyn M. Stout, Margaret Hamrick, Martha Barnes Kirkland, Mary Margaret Burney, Louise Poore, Mary Moring Kirkman, Nancy Jackson, Mildred Thorp, Anne McBride, Alice Peeler, Mary Anne Bristol, Caroline McBride, Helen Long Hilderman, Mary Agnes Cochrane, Belle Hicks Purvis, Elizabeth King, Gaynor May, Dorothea Bultman, May Morrison March, Lillian Zachary, Blanche Thies, Grace Dobbins, Daphne Lewis, Lucy Taylor, Katherine Davis, Ora Grace Beasley, Betsy King, Ruby Frances Madry, Rebecca Jane Pittard, Sarah Holt Therrell, Margaret Sherrill, Carolyn White, Mary Lib Doggett, Elizabeth Williamson, Mary Ellen West, Jean Cantrell, Henrietta Clodfelter, Agnes Cooley, Anna Tomlinson, Jane Stuart Golden, Billie Upchurch, Mary Nena Rhyne, Mary Tuttle.

Susannah Matthews
 Gaynor May
 Mary Niblock
 Rebecca Mae Oehler
 Alice Elizabeth Peeler
 Rebecca Jane Pittard
 Mary Davis Pou
 Mary Nena Rhyne
 Jean Rutledge Rickert
 Mary Madison Smith
 Dorothy Louise Stewart
 Carolyn Mullins Stout
 Lucy May Taylor
 Blanche Thies
 Mildred C. Thorp
 Billie Upchurch
 Elizabeth Irene Williamson

Mary (Green) Matthews '14
 Marguerite (Wright) May, class of '19
 Zeta (Goldwell) Niblock, class of '06
 Mac (Barnes) Oehler, class of '13
 Beulah (Linker) Peeler, Com. '18
 Martha (Davis) Pittard, class of '18
 Mary (Arey) Pou, class of '10
 Lila (Melvin) Rhyne '14 (deceased)
 Christine (Rutledge) Rickert '13
 Katie (Spangh) Smith, class of '18
 Hattie (Roth) Stewart, class of '10 (deceased)
 Margaret (Hunter) Stout, class of '21
 Christine (Davis) Taylor, class of '17
 Blanche (Austin) Thies '07
 Sadie (Holden) Thorp '17
 Havens (Carroll) Upchurch, class of '07
 Crette Murphy (Holliday) Williamson, Class of '14

- * President Recreation Association 1943-44
-  President Student Government Association 1943-44
- President Junior Class
- Associate Editor Coruddi 1942-43
- † President Wesley Foundation 1942-43
- ‡ Editor Carolynian, 1943-44
- § President Rising Senior Class (1944)

SOPHOMORES

Katherine Alexander
 Margaret Alexander
 Sarah Armstrong
 Marjorie Bason
 Peggy Bass
 Ann Bennett
 Melva Pearl Bovette

Margaret (Willis) Alexander '15
 Annie (Moring) Alexander '10
 Mary (Foust) Armstrong '20 (deceased)
 Conley (Albright) Bason '19
 Conie (Burgess) Bass, class of '09
 Ruth (Dawson) Bennett, Com. '15
 Dolly (Scott) Bovette, class of '22

Jane B. Carroll
 Allen Claywell
 Eugenia Cox
 Janet Cox
 Mary Elizabeth Cummings
 Ann Edgerton
 Margaret Fonville
 Patsy M. Fordham
 Evelyn Glass
 Camilla Griffin
 Nan Harris
 Elizabeth Anne Irvin
 Anne Jesnak
 Doris Jones
 Frances Jones
 Marian Kirkman
 Mary Kirkman
 Hilda O. Longest
 Evelyn McKinney
 (Peggy) Margaret Louise Plonk
 Cassie Ann Poole
 Laurene Valeria Renfrow
 Sarah Josephine Sherrill
 Annie Louise Sinclair
 Nell Alice Stephens
 Sadie Moyle Suggs
 Eleanor Dare Taylor
 Coline Austin Thies
 Margaret Van Sleen
 Kathleen Cannon White
 Eleanor Bruton Winstead
 Arnette Hathaway Avery
 Betty Rose Beckerdite
 Frances Mae Bland
 Emily Bower
 Eleanor Boyd
 Beverly Branson
 Eleanor H. Carroll

Matilda (Jones) Carroll '21
 Mary (Moses) Claywell, Com. '08
 Winnie (McWhorter) Cox '10
 Frances (Howard) Cox '17
 Doris (Trentman) Cummings, class of '17
 Grace (Slaughter) Edgerton, Com. '18
 Anne (Watkins) Fonville '14
 Murchison (Pickard) Fordham, Com. '17
 Effie (Couch) Glass, class of '13
 Margaret (Hollister) Griffin, class of '20
 Bertha (Drew) Harris '23
 Bessie (Bell) Irvin, Com. '16
 Frances (Moore) Jesnak, Com. '15
 Eunice (Donnell) Jones, class of '18
 Mamie (Snow) Jones, class of '18
 Cora (John) Kirkman '14 (deceased)
 Cora (John) Kirkman '14 (deceased)
 Mary Alice (Spears) Longest, Com. '18
 Winnie (Smith) McKinney '20
 Louise (McGuire) Plonk, class of '19
 Mildred A. (Barrington) Poole '21
 Veva (Tucker) Renfrow '19
 Anita (Miller) Sherrill, class of '07
 Annie (Gattis) Sinclair, class of '16
 Nell (Harry) Stephens '21
 Sadie (Moyle) Suggs '21
 Allene (Kernodle) Taylor, class of '25
 Coline (Austin) Thies '14
 Lois (Adams) Van Sleen, class of '12
 Kitty (Cannon) White, class of '24
 Kate (Barden) Winstead '04
 Arnette (Hathaway) Avery '19
 Nell (Motsinger) Beckerdite, class of '23
 Glady's P. (Weaver) Bland, Com. '22
 Louise (Hill) Bower, class of '07
 Jessie (Wilkinson) Boyd, class of '21
 Lillian (Pennington) Branson, class of '14
 Eleanor (Elliott) Carroll '07

FRESHMEN — 54

Betty W. Clement
 Ann Daniel Cloyd
 Laura Gene Cochrane
 Susan Speight Darden
 Elinor Cole Davis
 Jean Stearns Deck
 Nancy Gertrude Dobbins
 Diana Doggett
 Nancy Barksdale Edmunds
 Elizabeth Agnes Evans
 Laura Belle Foster
 Julia D. Fowler
 Betty Martin Gaines
 Virginia Ellen Gravely
 Margaret Perry Griffin
 Virginia Claire Hamilton
 Frances Helene Hicks
 Elizabeth Smith Holland
 Sarah Poole Holmes
 Frances Hinton Kittrell
 Martha Sink Koontz
 Mary Martin Lindsay
 Jane Jessup Linville
 Ann McDonald
 Mary Miller McLean
 Elizabeth Bennett McLeod
 Dorothy Thurton Mizelle
 Sally Dixon Moseley
 Jessie Groome Phillips
 Patty Pond
 Betty Anne Ragland
 Ann Reynolds Richardson
 Laura Frances Richardson
 Sarah Price Secrest
 Becky Smith
 Angela DeForest Snell
 Dorothy Harris Spruill
 Carol Montgomery Street
 Eleanor Lee Taylor

Margaret (Crawford) Clement '19
 Bertha (Daniel) Cloyd '12
 Agnes Mae (Dellinger) Cochrane, class of '21
 Esther (Yelverton) Darden, class of '14
 Claytie (Cole) Davis, class of '25
 Mary Elizabeth (Stearns) Deck '21
 Beulah (Logan) Dobbins '18
 Ann (Blevins) Doggett, Com. '19
 Isabel (Bouldin) Edmunds '17
 Alfreda (Pittard) Evans, class of '14
 Minnie (Rodwell) Foster '21
 Fannie Ethel (Fulk) Fowler, class of '22
 Claribel (Fountain) Gaines, Com. '22
 Lura (Brogden) Gravely '13
 Belle (Walters) Griffin '15
 Ada (Smith) Hamilton, class of '16
 Godena (Pope) Hicks, Com. '19
 Ruby Elizabeth (Smith) Holland, class of '22
 Mary (Poole) Holmes, class of '24
 Elizabeth (Hinton) Kittrell '19
 Corday (Olive) Koontz, class of '06
 Lucille (Parker) Lindsay, class of '08
 Lola (Jessup) Linville, class of '23
 Ruth (Kernodle) McDonald '17
 Nell (Miller) McLean, class of '19
 Kathryn (Humphrey) McLeod, class of '22
 Jessie (Thurston) Spencer, class of '24
 Sally Eliza (Parrott) Moseley, Com. '08
 Jessie (Groome) Phillips '16 (deceased)
 Kate (Brooks) Pond '18
 Bessie (Wright) Ragland '15
 Mary (Beahow) Richardson '06
 Louise Johnson (West) Richardson, class of '11
 Mary (Gordon) Secrest '18 (deceased)
 Nettie (Dixon) Smith '09
 Louise (Howell) Snell '17
 Flossie (Harris) Spruill '17
 Julia (Montgomery) Street '23
 Margaret (Hood) Taylor '30

sent by the WAACS to Washington, D. C., where she is doing administrative work.

Ensign Sidney Anne Tooley '42, of the WAVES, after being commissioned at the Smith College unit, was sent to Miami, Fla. Her work there is classified as Naval Communications.

Sgt. Melba Shafer, commissioned by the WAACS at Des Moines, is now in Portland, Maine, where she is instructing young men in laboratory technique.

Letters

FROM LT. GERALDINE COX '37:

Here I am at the Second WAAC Training Center, Daytona Beach. The WAACS are doing almost everything today. So many people had the idea that women wouldn't be able to march or to live under military discipline, but they have been surprised. Girls seem to take to the life like ducks to water! Also women take orders from women—this was also something people didn't think they'd be able to do. The girls really do the work too. They're working long hours at tedious hard jobs with little reward except the satisfaction of a job well done. They work hard and get tired, but they're always game when there's something additional to do. They aren't paid for overtime either. If ever the time comes when they work 40 hours a week again you won't hear many complaints. I know I'll feel like I'm having a vacation! We belong to Uncle Sam twenty-four hours a day, including Sunday.

I am an instructor in the Motor Transport Section. It's amazing how women take to the big trucks. Sometimes the smaller and frailer looking they are, the better drivers they make. We train them several weeks and send them out to drive. They surprise the men with their ability. The men say with respect usually, "The girls can keep right up with us." We teach them how the vehicle works and how to care for it, as well as to drive it. Practically all of them make safe, careful drivers and they do a good job getting there on time too.

The WAACS are doing many other jobs, and doing them well. Motor Transport happens to be my job and the one I know most about. I've been a driver myself, and worked as many as sixteen hours a day; but we have fun too. The

Jane Thomason
Mary Matilda Thompson
Carolyn Phillips Warren
Isabella Graham Webb
Mary Tuttle Whisnant
Eleanor Lane White

Lena Elizabeth Thomas, class of '10
Virginia Daze (Braswell) Thompson '20
Alice M. (Phillips) Warren, class of '21
Mary M. (Leigh) Webb, class of '25
Emeline Boone (Goforth) Whisnant '22
Lillian (Barnes) White '39

COMMERCIAL — 10

Nancy Mary Yates
Mary G. Barber
Sally S. Bogart
Etta Frances Dorsett
Mary Faith Douglass
Sarah Clark Jeffress
Pearl Southerland Little
Lenore McKinnie
Carolyn Bell Sawyer
Peggy Shaffer
Nancy Lucretia Smitherman

Elizabeth (Holton) Yates, class of '22
Zola (Gage) Barber, class of '19
Penelope (Biggs) Bogart, class of '15
Mae (Lindsay) Dorsett, class of '07
Doris (Mihham) Douglass, Com. '18
Louise (Adams) Jeffress, Com. '12
Pearl A. (Southerland) Little, class of '20
Esthelle (McGhee) McKinnie, class of '23
Maysel (Lupton) Sawyer '17
Annie Lou (Carr) Shaffer, class of '20
Lucretia (Ashby) Smitherman '22

SPECIAL

Dora Lewis

Daphne (Waters) Lewis, class of '21

few hours we have off are more appreciated since they are few. When it comes right down to the truth, you won't find a harder working or happier bunch of women in the world than the WAACS.

FROM ISABEL PELTON '39:

I have been with the American Red Cross, here at Fort Jackson in Columbia, since last June, and in the vernacular, am simply crazy about it! It's awfully strenuous—just now we're putting in sixteen hours a day, due to a sudden reduction in staff; but it's loads of fun anyway. It isn't always "all work and no play," not on a large Army Post. I know all the Army slang, now that I am a veteran of ten months.

I am a medical social worker, which means I do a little of everything, from running three laundries to disposing of kittens, and trying to work out the boys' family and financial troubles. We investigate requests for emergency furloughs, help fill in those famous allotment forms, get social and medical histories for the doctors, file income tax returns, buy radios and everything else imaginable, and try to locate everything from mail to girl friends (maybe that last isn't such a far jump after all).

Interestingly enough, most of our activities are in one building. We sleep upstairs and work downstairs. We have a kitchen where we eat breakfast and midnight supper—evening mess at an Army Post comes at 5 p.m. We get along together like a million dollars. We have a large recreation hall and have good free shows at least five nights a week. These include two good recent movies on Tuesdays and Fridays. All the USO shows come here—some good, some not so good, but they make a pleasant break.

Most criticism is that we lose every contact with civilian life. We rarely write letters any more, due to our very long and very hard days that last from 8:30 a.m. until 11:30 p.m. Anyway, we don't get much mail, except from our long suffering and understanding families.

There are about a dozen Woman's College alumnae here now, the majority of them from the Class of 1939. I am proud to say,

Consolidated University Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina numbers 100. They are elected by the Legislature to serve eight years, with their terms so staggered that one-fourth of the vacancies occur each two years. Twelve new Trustees were named by the last General Assembly, and fourteen whose term had expired were reelected.

The twelve new Trustees, and their counties, are: Arch T. Allen, Wake; Edward S. Askew, Pamlico; Charles A. Cannon, Cabarrus; Frank W. Hancock, Granville; Mrs. P. P. McCain, Hoke; Raymond Maxwell, Craven; Reid A. Maynard, Alamance; Robert W. Proctor, McDowell; Dr. Ben F. Royal, Carteret; William B. Shuford, Catawba; Mrs. Grace Pemberton Taylor, Stokes; Elliott W. Stevens, Duplin.

Gift to Alumnae House

Cash: To Alumnae House Library Fund. Gift of Blanche Hicks King Com. '15.

NEUTRALITY
ON WOMAN'S COLLEGE CAMPUS!

News from the Alumnae

1910

Sophia (Hart) Wakeley, Com. '10, is both the wife and mother of a doctor. Her oldest son, William Jr., was graduated last June from Cornell Medical College, and is now serving his internship in the Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia. When that has been completed, sometime this spring, he expects to be inducted into the Army. The second son, Frank, is a navigator in the Army Air Corps, and has been in the South Pacific for some time. He is enthusiastic about the Air Corps, and glad to be doing his bit. They hear from him at home fairly regularly and Sophia says that helps her and Dr. Wakeley, per se, very much. Sophia came to North Carolina last summer to spend the month in Tarboro, her old home, when her father died. The Wakeleys live in South Orange, N. J.

1912

Hattie Burch is living now in Largo, Fla.

Dora Coats is a member of the Committee on the Child Care Program which has been set up in North Carolina to take care of children two to six years of age whose mothers are or will be employed in war industries, and whose fathers are serving in the Armed Forces. The Committee is financed by a Federal grant under the Lanham Act.

1913

Ethel (Bollinger) Keiger is the new president of the Research Club in Asheville.

1916

Rosa (Blakeney) Parker is doing a busy war job these days, in addition to her work as principal of the elementary school in Albemarle. She is regional chairman of the Women's Division, War Savings Staff, having Mecklenburg, Rowan, Cabarrus, Union, Anson, and Stanly counties under her supervision. An extensive war program is also being carried on in the school. Among 500 children, every child has a stamp book, except six. Since September, nearly $16,000 in stamps have been sold at the school booth. A scrap book, made at the Central Elementary School, was selected from the school system to be entered in the state contest. More than 100,000 pounds of scrap have been collected by the children. Their Red Cross drive also went over in a fine way. Rosa works one night each week at the Red Cross surgical dressing room. And as if all this and more were not enough, she has been managing the school cafeteria, because of labor shortage—a situation well understood everywhere now. Rosa's oldest daughter, Anne Bickett, spent two years studying in the School of Architecture, Syracuse University, transferring there from two years of preparation at Woman's College. She is now attached to the construction force at Camp Davis and Fort Fisher as draughtsman. Anne plans to enroll at Columbia University this coming fall, to complete the work there for a degree in architecture. Carl, a son, is a senior at Chapel Hill in the Naval Reserve, and expects to go to Officers Training School soon. Rosa Jr. is a senior in high school. Mr. Parker is chairman of the Rationing Board for Stanly County.

Mary Gwynn has taken over beautiful camp Connettee, near Brevard. The pictures on her bulletin of information are so attractive and alluring that even a grown up wishes that somehow she might go to this camp too. Mary Gwynn's camp is co-educational. Boys and girls from 5 to 12 years are received. Her program is excellent, and during the years she has brought together a really superior staff of workers. Mary is spending the winter with her brother at Davidson College.

Claire (Henley) Atkinson is back at her pre-marriage job—teaching in the Department of Music at Woman's College, in place of Dorothy Clement '23, who went on leave at the close of the first semester to do overseas Red Cross work.

1917

Ann (Daniel) Boyd has a granddaughter, fourteen months old—the daughter of her daughter—"and very pretty." They live in Salisbury near Ann, so that she at least gets the chance to observe first-hand how to bring up a baby by 1943 methods! Ann says she is finding out how little she knows on the subject. Her oldest son, Louis Jr., enlisted in the Army Air Corps last November, and is now in Miami. Ann and her husband spent the last two weeks in March visiting him there, and incidentally getting a bit of mid-winter rest while Mr. Boyd completed his convalescence from an illness. Louis had been a student at McCallie School, and his training there has been a great advantage to him in the Army. A second son, 13, is in high school, and the youngest child is now in sixth grade. The Boyds have a summer home at Myrtle Beach, where they spend family vacations.

Caroline (Goforth) Hogue stopped over in Greensboro early in March for a short visit with friends and with a brother who lives here, and with her niece, Mary Tuttle Whisnant '46 (daughter of Emily Goforth, class of '20), at Woman's College. Caroline was on her way to her old home in Lenoir, to visit her mother, who had been ill, and who died after her arrival. The Hogues are spending this winter at their farm, Kelly's Ford, Remington, Va.

Louise (Howell) Snell is living in Richmond, Va., where her husband, now regional director for the USO, has headquarters. His territory includes Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, West Virginia, and North Carolina. Their daughter, Angela, is a Freshman at Woman's College, and has the honor of making all A's during the first semester; in fact, she is rated as the highest ranking scholar in the Freshman Class this year. The other children, Vincent and Shirley, are in school in Richmond.

1920

Julia (Cherry) Spruill is living in Washington, D. C., where her husband, formerly dean of the General College at the University of North Carolina, accepted a commission as major in the Quartermaster Corps of the Army. He is now stationed in the office of the Quartermaster General, possibly for the duration. Julia says that they were able to find an apartment, small but convenient, and that they are really very comfortable. Her sister, Mildred (Cherry) Hill, Com. '19, whose husband was also formerly a member of the University faculty, lives near by and her husband is also in the office of the Quartermaster General. Julia says that two other Chapel Hill couples live within a block, so that they all feel very much at home.

Lela (Wade) Phillips' husband, Mr. C. W. Phillips, director of Public Relations at Woman's College, has been elected to the presidency of the North Carolina Congress of Parents and Teachers—the first man to be so honored by the organization. Lela went to Asheboro the middle of March as guest speaker for the Sorosis Club. She talked on "Women in Science." Lela is president of the Reviewers Club, Greensboro.

1921

Mildred (Barrington) Poole is spending much of her time in promoting the Child Care Program which has been launched in North Carolina for the care of children who have been made "orphans" by reason of the fact that their fathers are now in the fighting forces and their mothers employed in war industries. This service is being financed by the Federal Government.

Pauline (Green) Hester lives in Washington City, keeping the home fires burning, while her husband, Colonel Hugh Hester, is with the Army in Australia.

Ruth (Vick) Everett is this year a member of the staff of the North Carolina Division of the OPA. In this capacity she visits various sections of the state, as speaker and adviser.

1923

Myo T. (Peacock) Douglas is the author of a splendid article entitled, "On This Foundation—Freedom," published in the February number of the Library Journal, national library bulletin. In her article she traces the growth of the American way of life through a study of pivotal documents, beginning with the Mayflower Compact and closing with the Atlantic Charter. She also contributed an article to the January-February number of the High School Bulletin, published by the Department of Education, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, entitled, "The Library in the High School War Program."

1926

Elizabeth Geiger is now in Charlotte with the United States Rubber Plant, in the division of Naval Inspection Service. The plant is new, having had its formal opening in February.

1930

Frankie-Jo (Mann) Torpy has recently been elected president of the Potomac Business and Professional Women's Club, Arlington, Va.

1932

Edna (Henley) Man and her son, Robert Jr., are in Durham for the duration, with Edna's parents. Her husband, Rev. Robert M. Man, is an Army Chaplain, recently gone over seas. The family was in Fort Riley, Kan., for nearly a year.

Frances Fitzgerald is a scout leader in Lexington, her home. She is also active in the work of the Red Cross, and of the church, and is a member of the choir. Frances received her M.A. degree in education from Duke University in 1940.

Amy (Newcomb) Nanzetta is now living in Winston-Salem, where her husband, Dr. Leonard Nanzetta, is serving his internship at City Memorial Hospital. He took his degree in medicine last June at the University of Michigan. The Nanzettas have one child. All the many who enjoyed Amy's "cello" when she was a student will be happy to know that she has continued to study and perform since leaving college.

1933

Susan (Capehart) Hardy is the wife of an Episcopal minister. They live at Williamston. Susan was married in 1936. Previous to that time she had been serving as county librarian for Bertie County, and also as teacher-librarian in the Columbia High School. She is active in all community enterprises, and is supply department chairman of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of East Carolina, and secretary of the Convocation of Edenton, Woman's Auxiliary, of the Diocese of East Carolina.

Wilma Morrow went to Florida the first of February to accept a position as librarian in an 85-teacher high school. She had been librarian at Campbell College for more than eight years.

Eloise (Cobb) Harris is now living in San Francisco, where her husband is connected with the Federal Investigations Division. They have a son, Michael Cobb, who was two years old on the 18th of February.

Virginia (Owens) Harmon lives in Newport News, Va. She has a son and a daughter.

1934

Born to Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Thomas (Dean Babcock), a second child, a son, George Robert, August 15, 1942. Newport News, Va. Dean says she belongs to a canteen group in Newport News, and makes Red Cross bandages once a week. She is also active in the local chapter of the AAUW.

Sarah Burton Clegg is secretary of the Greensboro Thalian Spinsters.

Frances (Dorsey) Young's husband is a captain in the Medical Corps of the U. S. Army, and is stationed in Columbus, Ga. Previous to her marriage in 1938, Frances taught in the schools of Concord and Newton. The Youngs have one child.

Adelaide (Fortune) Holderness is the new president of the Greensboro Junior League.

Ruth (Long) Nordstrom lives in Newport News, Va. She has a son, not yet a year old.

1935

Lorraine (Bowden) Redden transferred to Rowan County in the fall of 1941, where she is now serving as home demonstration agent. A year previous, she had been assistant agent in Guilford County; and previous to that, she had taught Home Economics in the schools of Forsyth and Warren counties. Lorraine is active in the AAUW, the Business and Professional Women's Club, the Red Cross, her church, and does considerable war work.

Mary (Coppedge) Monroe lives now at Ararat, Va., and is the wife of an apple orchardist. Previous to her marriage in 1941 Mary taught in the schools of North Carolina, at Chadbourne, Bessemer, and Winston-Salem. She is active in the DAR, the Woman's Club, the Red Cross, the church, and does a great deal of war work.

Mary (Torian) Wells' husband is an Ensign in the Navy. She lived in Newport News, Va., for several months, and while there was an officer of the Newcomers Club, a civic organization. She is now in Asheville, teaching again.

1936

Gladys Black deserted her first love, music, to become a secretary. She came back to the College last year, took secretarial training, and is now doing secretarial work with Burlington Mills, Greensboro.

Bebe Knight is a new vice president of the Thalian Spinsters, Greensboro.

1937

Mary Bell has been teaching commercial subjects in the Thomas Jefferson High School, Arlington, Va., for the past several years.

1938

Nan Norwine writes from St. Louis, Mo., where she has a job with the Emerson Electric Company, at Turret Division plant. She is counter girl and cashier in the cafeteria. Nan says she happened to meet Ann Huntington '40 in the bus station in her home town, Flat River, Mo., not long ago, and she also sees now and then Jane (Dupuy) Stitt '39, who lives in St. Louis.

1939

Florence Albright is an assistant in the Rosell, N. J. public library.

Before Marion Fisher became Lt. Fisher of the Waves, she was a laboratory and X-Ray technician—first in the hospital at Lumberton, and later in the hospital at Roanoke Rapids.

Emily Harris is back at the University of Virginia this spring, finishing up the work for a Master's degree. She taught last fall in the schools of Charlotte.

Margaret (Hill) Ragsdale recently came to Greensboro for several days with her parents before going on to Wilmington, Del., where her husband, Lt. Ragsdale, of the U. S. Army Air Corps, has been transferred from Columbus, Miss.

Marjorie Pye is treasurer of the Thalian Spinsters, Greensboro.

1940

Shirley Armentrout is now Mrs. J. DuPont Kirven Jr., and lives in San Antonio, Texas, where her husband was merchandise manager and vice president of the J. A. Kirven Department Store, previous to his induction into the U. S. Army Air Force.

Sarah Austin is teaching math in the Wingate High School, Monroe.

Ellen Cooper Axley is camp librarian at Hiawassee Dam. She works for the Nantahala Regional Library, which serves the three most western counties in the state, Cherokee, Clay, Graham; this library also serves all TVA communities, villages, and camps in the Hiawassee area. Ellen is actually in charge of three libraries—Hiawassee Dam in North Carolina, Appalachian Dam in Tennessee, and Ocoee No. 3 in Georgia.

Mary Evelyn (Ayscue) Rupp is doing defense work in Larencburg, Ind.

Evelyn (Brown) Wilson has a temporary leave of absence from teaching in order to be with her husband who is in the Armed Forces at Macon, Ga.

Katherine (Brown) Eaves is working in the engineering department of the Glenn R. Martin Airplane Corporation, Middle River, Md.

Celia Durham, who for two years was a member of the faculty at Woman's College, in the Department of Chemistry, is this year employed as a chemist with the Vick Chemical Company, New York City.

Ruth (Gillmore) Kathis is living now in Norwood, Mass. Her husband was assigned to foreign duty last fall, and is now in North Africa, having been in Casablanca, Oran, and Algiers. Ruth went to Wichita, Kans., in February for a visit with her husband's family.

Ellen Griffin is doing graduate work and part time teaching in the Physical Education Department of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. She was a member of the staff which had in charge a demonstration institute of war time physical fitness, put on by the State Department of Public Instruction at Morgantown the middle of March. Representatives from 57 western North Carolina high schools were present.

Lettie (Hamlett) Rogers has written an article to be published in Astra on "These Twain"—a story about American missionaries, and their way of dealing with the Chinese poor. Since her graduation Lettie has been teaching in the Department of Sociology here at Woman's College. She left the College about the first of March to join her husband, who is with the Armed Forces, and is stationed now at Fort Monmouth, N. J.

Mary Miller Heffner is doing secretarial work in the intelligence unit of the Internal Revenue Department, Washington, D. C.

Alta (Prine) Phelps writes from Westfield, N. J. For a while last summer she was employed as recreational director at the Children's Country Home, in Westfield, but resigned in September to join her husband, who returned to the United States from foreign duty to take officer's training at Camp Davis. Alta had an article entitled "Constructive Play Hours for Handicapped Children," published in the June (1942) number of Modern Hospital.

Anna (Railey) Akerman lives at Takoma Park, Md. She has a daughter, now a year old.

Edna Earle Richardson is the new chairman of the Service Committee of the Shapian Club of the Greensboro YWCA.

Christine (Wimbish) Rowland is a geologist at Bay Minette, Ala.

1941

Janice Abernathy is engaged in personnel work at Douglas Dam, Jefferson City, Tenn., one of the TVA defense projects.

Louise Alexander is teaching this year in the Odell School, Concord.

Mary Anderson is connected with the South Baltimore General Hospital.

Emma Neale Black is teaching public school music in the Charlotte city schools.

Nancy Blanton went to Brevard College in the fall of 1941 as physical education director for women. The manpower shortage deprived the college of its coach for men, and so Nancy took over. Coaching the men's basketball team is her newest venture. Quoths Nancy, "well, the former coach didn't win all his games either."

Annette Bridgers is now Mrs. Robert B. Dulaney, Washington, D. C. She describes herself as "homemaker."

Alice Calder is doing parish work for the Episcopal Church at Wilmington.

Roxie Carswell is working for the Government as assistant photographer, Langley Field, Va. She accepted this position last fall, after having done photographic work with the Wheelan Studios, Meyer's Department Store, Greensboro.

Bobbie Lee (Clegg) Minton came to Greensboro early in March, from Maine, where she had been with her husband, a lieutenant in the Navy, for some months. Lt. Minton was assigned to foreign duty, and Bobbie Lee returned to her home in Greensboro, where she expected to remain for the duration, but when her husband reached Panama, he was reassigned back to Florida. Bobbie Lee joined him there the first of April.

Laura Cline teaches a second grade in the Wagram school, and likes the work.

Sallie Pitt (Cobb) Andrews is doing secretarial work with the Farm Bureau Insurance Company, Raleigh.

Jean Church is doing graduate study this year at the University of Iowa.

Frances Cooke is on the staff of the City of Greensboro Recreation Department. Since her graduation from Woman's College she has studied at Chapel Hill, where she received a Master's degree in sociology. Her work is centered largely in the Glenwood community.

Carrie Olivia Cox, now Mrs. Charles Kenneth Spruill, is teaching vocational home economics at the Deep River High School, Sanford. Her work continues for eleven months in the year.

Mary Evelyn Cox is secretary to the superintendent of the Hamlet schools.

Peggy Dean is connected with WPTF radio station in Raleigh.

Elizabeth Francis is assistant home demonstration agent in Iredell County. She writes: "I started to work in Statesville on June 20 after graduation, as the first assistant home agent for Iredell County. The people are grand to work with and have been lovely to me from the very beginning. I am in charge of 4-H Club work and enjoy working with the young people. We have sixteen clubs, four of which were organized after I came. Their response to all of the war and victory drives was most gratifying. Each month I help with the women's clubs too. There are twenty of these clubs in the county. These rural women are most anxious to make their contribution to our war effort however small it might be. This has been shown through the salvage campaigns, contributions to the soldiers kits and to the Chinese Relief Fund, making and knitting Red Cross garments, and numerous other beneficial things. Almost daily we are called upon for something along the nutrition line. I have taught two of the Red Cross Nutrition courses of twenty hours each. I have also made talks to the PTA, Grange, negro schools, garden clubs, Business and Professional Women's Club, and many others which I shall not take time to name. By this you see that we do contact many people, but there are many who need the program whom we cannot reach."

Christine Gaddy is teaching vocational home economics at Norwood.

Lucile Griffin is a dietitian at the station hospital, Camp Butler.

Nelvin Gunn is Mrs. Charles Rhodes Reeves, Parkersburg.

Catherine Jernigan is teaching commercial subjects at Lafayette High School, Kipling.

Eileen (Johnson) King teaches English at the Cobb Memorial High School, Ruffin.

Margaret (Kearns) Kirkman is serving as dietitian at Sternberger Hospital, Greensboro.

Virginia Lamm is presiding over a first grade at the Saragota Club.

Geraldine Lawrence has a job with the Government at Newport News.

Kathryn (McLeod) Edwards writes herself down as a homemaker. She lives at Phoenix, Ariz.

Jean Kay MacDonald is doing secretarial work in Washington.

Ellen (Magill) Meyer lives in Wilmington, Del., where her husband is a chemist with the DuPont Company.

We sincerely sympathize with Mable Massey in the death of her father last summer.

Millicent (Miller) Benbow is working in the office of the Stock Company Association, Washington, D. C.

Mary Frances Moss is teaching home economics in the Graham schools.

Janie Paschal gives her address as 1433 Belmont Street, N. W., Apt. 102, Washington, D. C.

Julia Paschal is Mrs. Charles W. Mauze. She is keeping house in Jackson, Miss.

Elizabeth Pleasants is back at Woman's College this year, a graduate assistant in the Department of Secretarial Science. She is working toward an M. A. degree.

Estelle (Rogers) Hunter is married to a lieutenant in the U. S. Army.

Annie Lea Rose is this year a special music student at Baldwin-Wallace Conservatory, Berea, Ohio.

Doris (Shaffer) Gray is the wife of an Army Air Corps instructor, stationed at Camden, S. C.

Betsy Smith is doing secretarial work at Fort Bragg.

Evelyn (Sloucum) Tinga teaches home economics in the Wilmington High School.

Janette (Thornton) Boles has a position in the auditor's office of the North Carolina Shipbuilding Company, Wilmington.

Caroline White is teaching a sixth grade in the Elizabeth City schools.

1942

Ray (Williams) Betts, who was married the day she was graduated last June, is living in Aberdeen, Md., where her husband, Lt. Betts, is an instructor at the Aberdeen Proving Ground. Ray says that shortly after she arrived in Aberdeen she accepted a position as secretary in the Army Engineer's office, and remained there until the middle of January, when she resigned in order to accompany her husband to San Francisco, where he had been temporarily sent. They remained in California for a month. It was a grand experience. Now they are back in their little bungalow in Aberdeen. Ray is keeping house and doing Red Cross work. During January she and her husband had a short vacation by motor through the New England states. They spent one week in Newport, R. I.

Elizabeth Burroughs, who has been studying at Columbia University this year, in the field of Nineteenth Century English, says that she is busy now preparing for her examination on May 17-18. Her essay, however, is to be in the field of Modern Literature—on Virginia Woolf. In addition to a most stimulating year of study, Elizabeth says she has made a number of interesting friends, and that "together we've shared the experience of living in New York, not as a week-end tourist, but as a resident. I've scrambled along the Palisades, walked across the George Washington Bridge, heard the soap-box orators of Columbus Circle, listened to Wagner at the Metropolitan, found wonderful second-hand book stores on Third Avenue (where Ruskin can be bought at fifteen cents a volume!), haunted the collections of the Metropolitan Art Museum and the Museum of Modern Art, sighed over the exquisite herb garden up at the Cloisters—ad infinium!"

Anne Cole has just received her license as an instructor in flying. The license was granted from Southern Airways in Danville, and she is being retained there to teach civilian pilots.

Nancie (Harkey) Maddox has been in New Orleans for some weeks, where her husband was transferred pending overseas duty. Nancie says she is just waiting there until her husband goes. After her graduation, she did a supervisory job for the Government in the Family Allowance and Allotment Branch of the War Department, both in Washington and in Newark, N. J. In October she was sworn into the WAVES, for officer training, but was discharged three weeks later because of a slight physical handicap. In December she was married.

Kathryn (Little) Cobb, is now in Hartford, Conn., where she is an instructor and departmental foreman in the Pratt & Whitney Aircraft Training School. She is deeply interested in her work, and says she feels that she is really taking an active part in the winning of the war.

Lynette Mangum, history and French, Chocowinity High.

Beatrice Mann, stenographer, Army Air Corps, Wilmington.

Dorothy Mannfield, secretarial work in defense factory, New Haven, Conn.

Edith Matthews, civil service clerk, office of Post Engineer, Knollwood Field

Panthea Mayfield, sixth grade, Norlina. Last summer Panthea was counselor at Camp Happyland, Odenton, Md.

Martha Medford has been doing department store work in Asheville; also helping her father in his furniture business. In March she plans to go to New York School of Decorating.

Mae Melvin, laboratory technician, Goldsboro Hospital, Goldsboro. During the summer Mae interned at Tuomey Hospital, Sumter, S. C.

Dorothy Miller had a temporary position with Gas and Electric Company, Baltimore, Md., last fall, but was planning to move her family to California.

Susie Spruill Mohorn, accounting department, Calvin Distilling Company, Relay, Md.

Nancy Carroll Moore, fourth grade, Ardmore Elementary School, Winston-Salem.

Frances Newsum, newspaperwoman, News and Observer, Raleigh

Undine Nye, commercial subjects, Mebane High. Last summer Undine worked in Chapel Hill with the N. C. Hospital Savings Association.

Nancy O'Brien, second grade, Madison. Nancy did graduate work at Woman's College last summer.

Ruth L. O'Connor, English, Anderson High School, Burlington. Ruth also coaches the Glee Club, Debating Club, and soft ball team.

Ernestine Oettinger works in the showroom of a wholesale blouse concern, New York.

Betty M. O'Neal, junior clerk typist, Quartermaster Property Office, Camp Davis.

Martha (Osborne) Wurst, keeping house, Elizabethton, Tenn. Her husband is connected with the Utah Construction Company.

Annie Furman Parham, secretary, Guilford County Purchasing Agent, Greensboro.

Selene Parker, commercial subjects, Thomasville High.

Lucille Patton, junior stenographer, Veterans Administration Facility, Fayetteville.

Pauline Peay, home economics, Murfreesboro High.

Janice Pickard, second grade, Forest Hills School, Wilmington.

Margaret Pickard, second grade, Forest Hills School, Wilmington.

Mary Pilley, secretarial subjects, Laurel Hill. During the summer Mary taught at Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone.

Peggy Plummer is doing important war research work at the National Institute of Health, Bethesda, Md.

Almeta Pleasant, first grade, Roxboro. During the summer Almeta worked at Chautauqua, N. Y.

Novella (Pope) Rawlings, homemaking, Columbia, S. C.

Carolyn Potts, dietitian, Lander College, Greensboro, S. C.

Eupha Maye Price, third grade, Old Richmond School, Tobaccoville.

Peggy Quinn spent some time after her graduation taking specialized training with the Travelers Insurance Company, Hartford, Conn., and is now an assistant underwriter in the bonding division of the Traveler's Indemnity Company.

Rebecca Rains, fifth and sixth grades, King.

Margaret Ramsaur, commercial subjects, New Hanover High, Wilmington.

MONTALDO'S

SECOND FLOOR SHOP

... as Spring finds its way to our Second Floor Shop . . .

. well dressed women, in spite of their many war duties, gather for a rendezvous with the brilliants of another inimitable collection by Montaldo's. Things to wear, that are forever good, and most moderately priced.

IN THE PHOTOGRAPHY LAB

Doris Ramsey, home economics, Taylorsville High.

Frances Ramsey, English and French, Delta High School.

Stella Ray, assistant dietitian, Memorial Hospital, Charlotte.

Mary Lillie Ray, home economics, East Spencer High School.

Fay Rephan, secretary, Charleston S. C. She is also doing defense work at the control center.

An Revelle, French, Spanish, English, Hendersonville High. Anne was hostess and assistant manager at the Kenmore Hotel, Charlotte, last summer.

Betty Lewis Reynolds, trainee, radio mechanic, U. S. Army Signal Corps, Winston-Salem. Betty was expecting overseas assignment.

Jean Riden, English, Rock Ridge High School, Wilson.

Meredith Riggsbee, music and the band, Grundy, Va., High School.

Louise Robeson, junior clerk for U. S. Engineers, Wilmington.

Dorothy Robinette, commercial subjects, Statesville High School.

Rachael Robinson, first grade, Littleton, Mary Agnes Rogers spent the fall at home, but is now at Duke University taking an X-Ray technicians course.

Allene Rose, first to sixth grades, Durham. During the summer Allene worked at Highsmith Hospital, Fayetteville, as a bookkeeper in the business office.

Billie Abbitt Rose, clerk of Quartermaster's office, Key Field Air Base, Meridian, Miss.

Doris J. (Rouse) Wilson, commercial subjects, Albemarle High School.

Edythe Rutherford, French, Linden High School.

Elizabeth Ryan, stenographer, Spruance Rayon Plant of the E. I. du Pont de Nemours Company, Richmond, Va.

Elizabeth (Sargent) Cothran taught commercial subjects at Mt. Airy High School previous to her marriage.

Polly Sattler, clerk, Bethlehem Fairfield Shipyard, Curtis Bay, Baltimore, Md.

Wylma Setzer, sixth grade, Belmont.

Ellen Shield, chemist, Calvert Distilling Company, Relay, Md.

Martha Showalter, secretarial work, Tennessee Eastman Corporation, Kingsport, Tenn.

Sally Sieber, secretary, Freshman English Department, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. Sally is also working toward her master's degree.

Mildred Simmons, band and English, Roxboro. Mildred did graduate work last summer at Woman's College.

Eunice Sink, home economics and eighth grade, Linwood School, near Lexington.

Ernestine Smith, music, Stokesdale High.

Harriet Smith, temporary position at Bell's, Columbia, S. C.; also attending business school. During the summer, Harriet worked at Dora Gray Interior Decorating Studio.

Sallie Smith, first and second grade, Bunnlevel.

Ellen Southerland, home economics, Clinton High School.

Nancy Stockard, T.V.A. Maps and Surveys Division, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Hazel Storey, computer, Langley Field, Hampton, Va.

Henrietta Lee Stratton, attending Jefferson School of Commerce, Charlottesville, Va. Henrietta is also taking the Volunteer Red Cross Nurse's Aid Course at the University of Virginia Hospital.

Catherine Sugg, eighth grade, and librarian, Mebane schools.

Mable (Tate) Edwards, secretarial work, Philadelphia, Pa.

Eloise (Taylor) Jackson, homemaking, Greensboro.

Sallie Teague, public school music, Welcome.

Frances Templeton, extension artists, Department of Publications, State College, Raleigh.

Lucile Thomas, secretarial work for Disbursing Officer, Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point.

Gertrude Thompson, English and history, Saint Pauls High School.

Anne Turrentine, chemist, Holston Ordnance Works, Kingsport, Tenn.

Virginia Vache, medical student, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

Margaret Van Hoy, treasurer's staff, North Carolina Shipbuilding Company, Wilmington.

Jean Von Canon, inspector, Edwards Company, Sanford.

Billie Marie Wall, public school music in all grades, Harrisburg.

Jackie Walser, stenographer, Philadelphia, Penn.

Kitty (Warren) Galloway is working in Memphis, Tenn., for a firm that sells tractors and other heavy equipment. She does general office work, and likes it. Kitty says that she worked for a while last summer in Norfolk at the Naval Base. Her husband is stationed at the Millington Naval Training School, about twenty miles from Memphis. They both like Memphis very much, but admit that they miss North Carolina entirely too much. She says she eagerly awaits the arrival of every number of the Alumnae News.

Sara Warren, biology, physics, history, Mebane High.

Estelle Washburn, first grade, Marion.

Marville Weaver, secretary, News and Observer, Raleigh.

Jean Welborn, graduate work in sociology, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

Marie Wells, second grade, Mocksville.

Margaret Weskert, student dietitian, Graduate Hospital, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia.

Jean Whalin, economics, history, Oakhurst High School, Charlotte.

Carolyn Wheatly, commercial subjects, Morehead City High, Beaufort.

Sarah White, home economics, Gastonia High.

Doris Emily Whitesides, home economics, Brevard High School.

Susan Whitfield, third grade, Charlotte.

Eunice Grey (Whitley) Williams, home economics, Helena School, Timberlake.

Helen Whitlock, assistant home demonstration agent, Sampson County, Clinton.

Evelyn Williams, home economics, Penderlea High School, Willard.

Geneva Williams, home economics, Prospect Hill. Geneva spent the summer vacation with relatives in Portsmouth, Va.

Fanny Ray Williams, secretarial work, Engineers Office, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Aberdeen, Md.

Margaret Ann Williams, secretary, Calvert Distilling Company, Relay, Md.

Alice Elizabeth Wilson, school lunch room manager, Franklin School, Richmond, Va. Alice was food manager of the Nursery School at Woman's College during the summer school session. In August she was dietitian at Camp Herman.

Rose Wilson, secretary, U. S. Naval Air Station, Elizabeth City.

Eloise Winborne, commercial subjects, Elm City.

Mildred Winfree, home economics and biology, Casar High School.

Sarah Womack, second grade, Wilkesboro. During the summer Sarah was counselor in the Arts and Crafts Department, Camp Nawakwa, Pocono Pines, Penn.

Mary Ellen Woodlief, secretary to Mrs. Ruth Vick Everett, Chief Consumer Division Representative, North Carolina Office of Price Administration, Raleigh.

Blanche Wooldard, accountant, Vick Chemical Company, Greensboro.

Lena Wright, seventh grade, Kings Mountain.

Barbara Wyche, stenographer, Quartermaster Depot, Procurement Division, Charlotte.

Betty Youngblood, secretarial work, Concord.

Roberta Zimmerman, laboratory technician, Shelby Hospital, Shelby. Roberta spent the summer interning at Moore County Hospital, Pinehurst.

MISERIES OF

Baby's Cold Relieved As He Sleeps

Now . . . here's wonderful home-improved medication that works 2 ways at once to relieve distress of child's cold—even while he sleeps! Just rub throat, chest and back with Vicks VapoRub® at bedtime. Instantly VapoRub starts to relieve coughing spasms, ease muscular soreness or tightness, and invite restful, comforting sleep. Often by morning, most of the misery is gone.

For baby's sake, try VapoRub tonight. It must be good, because when colds strike, most mothers use Vicks VapoRub.

MARRIED

Mary (Pleasants) McCutcheon '30 to Lt. Comdr. Franklin Perry Shockey, USNR, February 22, Washington, D. C. Comdr. Shockey is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, Madison, and did graduate work at Columbia University. He is president of Franklin Shockey Company, Lexington. At home in North Carolina until Comdr. Shockey is assigned to his new post.

Ruby Mae Temple '33 to Lt. Frank S. Cooper, February 23, Baptist Church, Zebulon. Lt. Cooper is now stationed at Camp Sutton, Monroe. The bride continues her teaching in the Rocky Mount High School.

Mildred Swift '37 to John Anderson Liddell, U. S. Coast Guard, February 9, Red Bank, N. J. The bridegroom is stationed in Buffalo, N. Y., and Mildred plans to join him there soon.

Esther Louise Darden '39 to Simeon Benton Davis Jr., March 6, First Methodist Church, Wilson. The bridegroom is a graduate of Wake Forest College and of the Law School of Duke University. He is now associated in business with his father in Roxboro.

Phyllis Keister '39 to Herbert Francis Schaefer, March 27, at the home of the bride, Greensboro. Jane Keister '43 was bridesmaid. Mr. Schaefer is a graduate of the University of Alabama. He and his bride are both chemists with the Hercules Powder Company, Wilmington, Del. At home Wilmington.

Ruth Vanstory King '39 to Ensign Edward James Garvey, United States Naval Reserve, February 6, Naval Chapel, Philadelphia, Penn. Ensign Garvey is a graduate of Colgate University, Hamilton, N. Y. He is a member of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity. Before entering the U. S. Navy he was connected with Vick Chemical Company, Greensboro. The bride is at home Upper Darby, Penn.

Ballard Ramsey Wilson '39 to Lt. (jg) Thomas Charles Murphy, USNR, February 27, First Presbyterian Church, Rocky Mount. Rose Wilson '42 was her sister's maid of honor. Lt. Murphy is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. He is now stationed at the Marine Barracks, New River.

Mildred Woodard Tomlinson '40 to Francis Raymond Moore, March 6, First Christian Church, Wilson. The bridegroom is an alumnus of State College and Ouachita College, Arkadelphia, Ark. At home Greenville.

Ada Sorrell Page '41 to William Ernest Ormond, Jr., January. The bridegroom is an alumnus of Randolph-Macon Military Academy, and of State College, Raleigh. He is connected with Glenn L. Martin Corporation, Baltimore, Md., where they are at home.

Euva Mae Lyon '42 to Ensign George Wright Meyer, USNR, March 3, Methodist Church, Creedmoor. Sarah Jane Hunter '42 and Agnes Rogers '42 were bridesmaids. Ensign Meyer is a graduate of the University of North Carolina. He recently completed a special aviation course at the Navy Air Station, Jacksonville, Fla., and is now stationed in San Diego, Cal.

Eloise Newell '42 to Lt. John Demarest, Jr., January 31, St. Petersburg, Fla. Lt. Demarest is an alumnus of the University of Michigan. At home Tampa, Fla.

Doris Jacqueline Rouse '42 to Ellie Franklin Wilson Jr., January 30, Chesterfield, S. C. The bridegroom is a graduate of Clemson College. Prior to his induction into the Army he was a member of Albemarle High School faculty, where the bride continues to teach.

Elizabeth Tatam Sargent '42 to Lt. Harold Lawton Cothran, United States Army Air Corps, March 5, Trinity Episcopal Church, Columbia, S. C. Lt. Cothran is now stationed at Macon, Ga. At home there.

Betty Nell Stevenson '42 to W. Argyle McLeod, February 8, First Methodist Church, Salisbury. The bridegroom is a graduate of State College and was formerly connected with the Farm Security Administration, Staunton, Va. He is now stationed at Ft. Hamilton, N. Y. The bride has resumed her work as head of the commercial department of Spencer High School.

Catherine Virginia Sugg '42 to Alexander Preston Long, Jr., February 10, parsonage of First Methodist Church, Mebane. Mr. Long is employed by Fairchild Aircraft Corporation.

Mary Pendleton Tanner '42 to Joseph Randall Balderson, February 17, First Baptist Church, Henderson. The bridegroom is a graduate of Bluefield College, W. Va. He is connected with the A.E.M. Construction Company, Newport News. At home there.

Catherine Nicholson Webb '42 to Pvt. Harry Ramsey White, February 27, First Presbyterian Church, Greensboro. The bridegroom was connected with Dillard Paper Company prior to his induction into the Army. He is now stationed at Fort Bragg. The bride has resumed teaching at Senior High School, Greensboro.

Lelia Wheeler '42 to Lt. Merritt E. Blalock Jr. Lelia is continuing her work as dietitian in the Harnett County Hospital, Dunn.

Mary Frances Bell '43 to Ensign Herbert Richard Hazelman, USNR, January 31, home of the bride, Murphy. Ensign Hazelman is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, where he made Phi Beta Kappa. He is also a member of Phi Mu Alpha Fraternity. Before entering the Army he was head of instrumental music in the Greensboro City Schools and was also an instructor in music at Woman's College. At home Boston, Mass., where the bridegroom is on active duty with the Navy.

Marian Louise Callis '43 to Pvt. Donald Killian Funderburk, USA, during Christmas holidays. The bridegroom is a graduate of Brevard College and is now stationed at Ft. Bragg. The bride continues her work at the college.

Ann Hardison '43 to Ensign Edward Graham McGoogan, December 5, Calvary Episcopal Church, Wadesboro. Ensign McGoogan is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, where he was a member of Kappa Alpha Fraternity. He is now

Compliments of

F. W. Woolworth Co.

To the Students and Faculty of W. C. U. N. C.

We certainly appreciate the business extended to us in the past and sincerely hope that we may serve you in a most satisfactory manner in the future.

THE PERSONNEL OF
Montgomery Ward

Help Win the War

By economizing. Bring your old shoes to

WALTON'S COLLEGE SHOP

to be repaired the right way

Satisfaction Guaranteed

409 Tate St.

Greensboro, N. C.

FRANKLIN STUDIOS

Creators of Fine Portraiture

Phone 5313

123 South Elm Street
Greensboro, N. C.

stationed at Charleston, S. C. The bride is continuing her studies in college.

Helen Work Kemp '43 to Frank Holbrook Whitney, USA, during Christmas holidays. The bridegroom is now stationed at Ft. Belvoir, Va. The bride continues her studies at college.

Margaret Hartridge Lincoln '43 to Lt. Thomas Edward Bates, United States Army, December 31, Congregational Church, Tryon. Barbara Lincoln '34 was her sister's maid of honor. Lt. Bates is a graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, Va. He is now stationed at Camp Lee, Va. Peggy, a senior at Woman's College, and editor of The Carolinian, is remaining in college until her graduation in June.

Elizabeth Mitchell '43 to Lt. James R. Meador, June 6, 1942, Atlanta, Ga. Elizabeth continues her college work, and is president of the Home Economics Club.

Catherine Powell '43 to Lt. William Anderson Powell, USN, October 20, Baptist Parsonage, Franklin, Ky. Lt. Powell is a graduate of Oak Ridge Military Institute. The bride is continuing her studies, looking forward to graduation in June.

Frances Rivenbark '43 to Lt. James Luther Nichols, Jr., December 29, Post Chapel, Ft. Benning, Ga. Ann Conway '43 was maid of honor. Katherine Justice '43 sang, and Elizabeth Ferguson '43 was a guest. Lt. Nichols is a graduate of Oak Ridge Military Institute, and before entering the Army was connected with Thomas Howard Company, Charlotte. The bride is remaining in college to graduate.

Elise Dunn Rouse '43 to Lt. George Dean Wilson, USA, October 6, Lt. Wilson is a graduate of Presbyterian College, Clinton, S. C. The bride is a member of the Senior Class and editor of Pine Needles. She is continuing in college.

Jean Patricia Scott '43 to Cpl. James Turner Suttles, United States Army Air Force, December 21, Travis Park Methodist Church, San Antonio, Texas. Corporal Suttles was a junior at Guilford College when he enlisted for military service last year. The bride is continuing in college to complete her work in June.

Flossie Starling '43 to Aviation Cadet James Paul Rule, February 19, Florence, S. C. Cadet Rule is an alumnus of Oak Ridge Military Institute. He is now stationed at Miami Beach, Fla. Flossie remained in college to complete her work.

Virginia Todd '43 to Edward Bruce Mastin, Jr., December, 1942, Mr. Mastin, formerly here with Forbis and Murray, is now with Bullard's Machine Tool Company, Bridgeport, Conn. Virginia is completing her work at the college.

Mary Francis Varner '43 to Lt. Howard M. Bullard, USA, September 25, Asheville. Nancy Sofley '43 was maid of honor. Lt. Bullard is an alumnus of the University of South Carolina. The bride is continuing her college work.

ENGAGED

Martha Bynum Thomas '36 to John Pendleton Read, Jr. The wedding date has not yet been set.

Clara Kridler Knox '37 to Lt. Warren Fulton Abercrombie, USA. The engagement was announced at a tea given by Miss Blanche Tansil and the class in Institution Management, in Alumnae House, on Saturday afternoon, March 13. Clara is this year a member of the Woman's College faculty.

Mary Katherine Bradley '39 to Aviation Cadet Orton J. Cameron, The wedding will take place in early May.

Jane M. Cook '41, Swarthmore, Penn., to Lt. Richard Schurz, of the Ferry Command, the wedding to take place this spring.

Sigrid Heine '41, Mount Clemens, Mich., to Pvt. Guy L. Brown Jr., U. S. Army Air Force. The engagement was announced on last December 27, at an open house given in Sigrid's honor by her parents. No date has been set for the wedding.

Phyllis Johnston Crooks '43 to Lt. Lester Duett Coltrane III, USA. The wedding is planned to take place after Phyllis' graduation in June, if military orders permit.

Ethel Ellen Kassler '43, of Gaffney, S. C., to Richard Ernest Bernstein, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Rebecca Womble Neal '43 to Aviation Cadet Richard Bliss Pethick, the wedding to take place this spring.

Mary Westcott Tuttle '43 to Ensign Donald Hale McAdams, USN. No date has been set for the wedding since the bridegroom-elect is on duty with the Pacific fleet.

Anna Winslow '43 to Lt. Gilbert Lawrie Newbold, USA. The wedding is planned for the late spring.

Alda Brown Winecoff '28 to Dr. Martin Samuel Kamelin.

NECROLOGY

Class of 1903

Lelia Hampton died at the home of her brother in Greensboro on March 26, following an illness of ten weeks. She had taught in high school almost continuously since her graduation—in Greensboro, Winston-Salem, and Durham. She was member of the Durham High School faculty when she became ill. Somewhere along the line she received a Master's degree from the University of North Carolina. A legion of boys and girls who came under the influence of her attractive personality, as well as the discipline of her excellent teaching, feel a personal loss in her passing. To her sisters, Bell Hampton '07 and Ruth Hampton Shuping '14, we extend deepest sympathy.

Class of 1938

Willie Ruby Blackburn died suddenly the day after Christmas at the home of her sister, in Cape May, N. J. For several years she had taught commercial subjects at Campbell College, but resigned last fall to teach the same subjects in the Extension Division of William and Mary College, in Richmond, Va.

We Extend Deepest Sympathy:

To Helen (Austin) Robbins, Com. '10, in the death of her husband, in Tarboro, on March 22.

To Myrtle Matthews, Com. '12, and Mildred (Matthews) Ballow, Com. '17, in the death of their sister, in Greensboro, March 2.

To Sarah (Monroe) Folk, Com. '16, and Magdalene (Monroe) Wharton, Com. '19, in the death of their mother, in Greensboro, during March.

To Caroline (Goforth) Hogue '17, Emeline (Goforth) Whisman '22, Willard (Goforth) Eybers, class of '20, in the death of their mother, in Lenoir, on March 10, following a long illness.

To Frances (Vaughn) Wilson '19, in the death of her husband, the latter part of February.

HOME OF SOCIETY PINS

207 South Elm

Phone 2 0044

Shop at Sears and Save
Sears Roebuck & Co.

DIAL 5161

YELLOW TAXI CO.

1 passenger in City, 35c; 2 to 5 passengers, 50c.

24 Hour Service Since 1924

New Equipment Experienced Drivers

CHARLES

Greensboro's Fastest Growing
Department Store

FRIENDLY SERVICE
QUALITY MERCHANDISE
FAIR PRICES

We invite your patronage

240 S. ELM ST.

GREENSBORO, N. C.

TASTE-TEST WINNER
FROM COAST TO COAST
ROYAL CROWN
COLA
2 full glasses 5¢

Greensboro NEHI Bottling Co.
825 Battleground Ave. Phone 9824

GREETINGS
MANUEL'S RESTAURANT
"We Serve the Very Best"
Special attention to college always

SILLS
IS the WORD FOR SHOES
IN GREENSBORO

For the best follow the college girls to their favorite spot

THE GRILL
407 Tate St. Phones 7306-9465

DICK'S LAUNDRY COMPANY

Launderers and Dry Cleaners

GREENSBORO, N. C.

PHIL R. CARLTON, Inc.
Real Estate - Rents - Bonding
INSURANCE
Carlton Building, Opposite Courthouse
Dial 8157

SILVER'S
5-10 and $1.00 Store
College Girls
always welcome at Silver's

Dial 8193 and let
The Columbia Laundry
do it.
Launderers and Dry Cleaners
Battleground Ave. at Cedar St.

Call us for your transportation needs. We appreciate your patronage.

UNION BUS STATION
Phone 6151

BLUE BIRD TAXI
1 passenger. 35c; 2 to 5 passengers. 50c.
25c each stop for not more than 5 minutes' duration.
Anywhere in the City Limits

DIAL
5 1 1 2
BAGGAGE TRANSFER

The College Girl's Favorite Store for QUALITY CLOTHES

Ellis Stone & Co

E. A. WOODELL
Service Printer
Successor to "Kendall"
221 East Sycamore St. Greensboro, N. C.

The Mecca
"Greensboro's Most Popular"
RESTAURANT
228 West Market Street

COMPLIMENTS OF
GREENSBORO BOWLING CENTER
We welcome the faculty and student body
Phone 8046 341 North Elm St.

VISIT
BELK'S

Junior and College Miss
Department

EVERYTHING FOR THE College Girl

READY-TO-WEAR
SECOND FLOOR

BELK'S

Protect Your Paint
—and your best insurance is
DEVOE PAINTS

Featuring the
2-COAT SYSTEM

This Devoe 2-Coat System doesn't try to saddle or shirk. There are two definite jobs for outside paint to do, and Devoe does them. Each coat does its specific work. The first coat locks the pores of the wood like iron, seals it against sucking up life-giving oils. The second coat is built to laugh off ultra-violet sun rays and weather, still sparkles after several years.

PAINTS FOR INTERIORS

KEARNS PAINT CO., Inc.

Greensboro, N. C.

112 N. Greene St.—Phone 4171

SPORTING GOODS
WALLPAPER

Jos. J. Stone & Company

• •

Printers and Bookbinders

• •

Everything for the Office

• •

225 South Davie Street
Greensboro, N. C.

Flatter Your Legs!!

Be Nice to Your Budget with

MOJUD

The Dependable Hosiery!

Sheer . . . Clear . . . a flawless veil of smart new color.
Dear? . . . goodness, no! Mojuds look fragile, but they last and last. They're an investment in chic you ought to make.
The newest colors are in now.

Mock, Judson, Voehringer Co.

GREENSBORO, N. C.
CHICAGO, ILL.

SILER CITY, N. C.
DECATUR, ALA.

NEW YORK CITY
SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.